

Old Walcountians Rugby Club

Just After Easter Tour 2008

Fellow Tourist

It's that time of year again to brush the dust off your Tour jackets, replace your sturdiest pair of drinking boots and take them on their annual trip toits still a mystery

Once again we congratulate you on the most excellent decision of joining the OWRFC Mystery Tour 2008 - where the biggest mystery is, how can the committee arrange so much into such a short time for so little money?

As you are no doubt aware, this is a "back to basics" tour, involving fun, frolics, laughter, vomit, passing out, a game of rugby and a life threatening quantity of alcohol. We would like to say that we have anticipated and catered for your every need but bearing in mind the levels of depravity displayed on previous tours, this was not possible without the threat of long prison sentences for The Committee.

Disclaimers will need to be signed on arrival at the club absolving The Committee from any responsibility relating to personal damage or injury whilst on Tour. Please also ensure that you have adequate life insurance and that your personal affairs are in good order

This year's extravaganza starts for real on Friday 4th April at the club at the extremely sociable hour of 6.30 am, where a traditional Tour breakfast will be available. Don't be late - it will hurt!!!!

"we shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the rugby grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills; we shall never touch them in the lap-dancing bars"

In addition to bringing yourself you will all need to bring along the following items:

- Tour jacket
- Facial hair - home grown
- A golf glove
- Lottery scratch card
- A pen
- A Yorkie bar
- £10 in £1 coins
- A £5 note
- A six sided die
- Rugby kit
- A packed lunch to include
 - 1 x sandwich
 - 1 x packet of crisps
 - 1 x chocolate covered biscuit
 - 4 x cans of beer (for your own consumption)

A kit inspection will be held at the Clubhouse prior to departure and appropriate penalties will be administered by the Tour Fine Masters (Frank and Bruce) for any missing items

Looking forward to the pleasure of your company

Yours in Touring,
The Committee
